

Sir Coates Painting Masters 2024

The first public painting competition from the Duncan Rhodes Painting Academy, hosted by the London Grand Tournament. The competition will be judged by Duncan Rhodes who will judge each submission on creativity and narrative along with painting skill. It welcomes all types of miniatures from all game systems and beyond.

Event Details:

- Date: September 28th - 29th, 2024
- Location: London Grand Tournament, Lee Valley Athletics Centre 61 Meridian Way, Edmonton, London, N9 0AR, UK

Categories:

Single Miniature: This category is for any single human-sized miniature, mounted on an appropriately sized base. This includes everything from solitary troopers to majestic, genetically enhanced commanders. This includes miniatures mounted on smaller vehicles and creatures like bikes, jet bikes, and beasts or mounts.

Squad/Unit: This category is for squads or units of three or more miniatures. The unit may be displayed on an appropriately sized base. This includes miniatures on foot and miniatures mounted on bikes, jet bikes, and beasts, provided they are organised into a unit of three or more models.

Vehicle: This category is for any single vehicle. This includes tanks, walkers, and flyers – everything from historically accurate machinery to strange and wonderful sci-fi and alien Tanks or craft. Models entered into this category, that for any reason do not require a base, may still be mounted on an appropriately sized base.

Monster: This category is for any single large than human sized miniature, mounted on an appropriately sized base. This is the category to really go to town with if you enjoy whimsical fantasy creatures or hulking alien monstrosities!

Entry Fee:

- Cost: £5 per submission

Each Entree has the chance to win a bespoke Sir Coates trophy for first, second, and third respectively and the best in show.

Saturday 28th - Submissions are welcome all day and will be collected at the Sir Coates Painting Masters booth by a member of the Duncan Rhodes Painting Academy team.

Sunday 29th - Submissions are accepted until 12:00pm. Judging will take place until 3:00 pm ready for the awards ceremony to be announced by Duncan Rhodes.

About the London Grand Tournament (LGT): The LGT is one of the largest and most esteemed tabletop gaming events in the world, drawing thousands of attendees each year. Known for its competitive tournaments, vibrant community, and diverse range of events, the LGT serves as a great backdrop for the Sir Coates Painting Masters 2024.

Call for Entries: Tickets can be purchased from the London Grand Tournament website here or on the day in person via card transaction only.

Join us and enter into what will be the first Duncan Rhodes Painting Academy public painting contest and be among the first hobbyists to be awarded the Sir Coates trophy. We will also have our event-exclusive miniatures available on the day to purchase which are highly sought after.
